

A Resolution adopted by The City Council of the City of Chicago, Illinois

Presented by Alderman Margaret Laurino on July 19, 2007

Whereas, It was with great sadness that members of this chamber learned of the death of Laura Wiley, an outstanding woman who devoted much of her life to supporting and promoting the arts in Chicago; and

Whereas, As Co-Founder and Co-Director of the Albany Park Theater Project, Laura worked tirelessly and passionately on behalf of APTP and its artists; and

Whereas, Laura has touched the lives of many people through her kindness, her generosity, her humor, her spirit and her art; and

Whereas, Her untimely death leaves us all with a profound sense of loss and tragedy, especially her loving family, husband David Feiner, mother, Janice, and sister Dana, devoted friends and the APTP and arts community. Despite our sorrow, we continue to preserve, celebrate and glorify her life; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we, the Mayor and the members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, gathered here this nineteenth day of July, 2007, do hereby commemorate Laura Wiley for her many lifetime contributions and do hereby extend our sincere condolences to her family and friends; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to her family as a token of our honor, gratitude and respect.
